

LUDWIG-
MAXIMILIANS-
UNIVERSITÄT
MÜNCHEN

MÜNCHNER ZENTRUM FÜR GLOBALGESCHICHTE
MUNICH CENTRE FOR GLOBAL HISTORY

Programme of the International Workshop
“Consolidating Global History: Perspectives and Challenges” and the opening of the
Munich Centre for Global History
8-9 May 2019

WEDNESDAY, 8 May 2019

Workshop – Historisches Kolleg, Kaulbachstraße 15, 80539 München)

12.00-13.00: Arrival at the venue

13.00-13.30: Welcome by Roland Wenzlhuemer (Munich)

13.30-15.00: Panel 1 – Chair: Benedikt Stuchtey (Marburg)

Madeleine Herren-Oesch (Basle): On missing links in Global History

Sebastian Conrad (FU Berlin): Global History and the Specter of Centrism

Stefanie Gänger (Cologne): Flowing in Circles. Notes on the Language of Global History

Comment: Cyrus Schayegh (Graduate Institute Geneva)

15.00-15.30: Coffee break

15.30-17.00: Panel 2 – Chair: Julia Angster (Mannheim)

Tonio Andrade (Emory): New Directions in Old Fields: Global History and Military and Diplomatic History

Angelika Epple (Bielefeld): Family constellations: global microhistory and its big siblings

Juliane Schiel (Vienna): Global Labour History: Achievements and New Challenges

Comment: David Motadel (LSE)

17.00-18.00: Break

18.00: Informance

Jazz – The Classical Music of Globalization by Reinhold Wagnleitner and Günter Wagnleitner (Salzburg)

THURSDAY, 9 May 2019

Workshop – Historisches Kolleg, Kaulbachstraße 15, 80539 München

9.00-10.30: Panel 3 – Chair: James Livesey (Dundee)

Anne Gerritsen (Warwick): Materiality and Global History

Michael Goebel (Graduate Institute Geneva): Crossroads and Loggerheads: On Cities and Global History

Giorgio Riello (Warwick): The Root of the Problem: Global History and the European “Rust Belt”

Comment: Richard Drayton (King’s College London)

10.30-11.00: Coffee break

11.00-12.30: Panel 4 – Chair: Matthias Middell (Leipzig)

Ulrike Lindner (Cologne): Global History and Empire

Harald Fischer-Tiné (ETH Zurich): Marrying South Asian History and Global History: Potential and limits of a Global Microhistory

Kiran K. Patel (Maastricht): Positioning Europe in Global History

Comment: Valeska Huber (FU Berlin)

12.30-13.00: Closing comments by Andreas Eckert (HU Berlin), Johannes Paulmann (Mainz) and Sujit Sivasundaram (Cambridge)

Afternoon programme – LMU München, Amalienstr. 52, Room K 201, 80539 München

Introduction of the Munich Centre for Global History’s transfer projects: “Children’s exhibition: A History of Globalization in the 19th Century” and “App-based City Tour GLOBAL MUNICH”

Opening of the Munich Centre for Global History – Historisches Kolleg, Kaulbachstraße 15, 80539 München

18.30-19.00: Welcome by Roland Wenzlhuemer (Munich)

Hans van Ess (Munich), Vice President for International Affairs

19.00-20.00: Keynote speech

Sunil Amrith (Harvard): Rethinking the Port City in Global History

Followed by a reception at the Historisches Kolleg